International Summer School

Felsted

September 2018

Dear Partners,

We are delighted to bring you our latest newsletter from Felsted. It is our aim to keep you all updated and informed about the developments and changes we make to Felsted International Summer School.

In this newsletter we are delighted to announce our new dates for 2019, the latest academy additions to the programme and also our Director, Daniel Emmerson's travel schedule.

2019 is set to be our biggest Summer School yet and I am happy to announce the dates for next year are 7th July—18th August 2019.

Our course will deliver the same action packed timetable as in previous years and will give students:

1. Up to 21 hours of teacher contact time per week
2. 8 hours of academy time per week
3. 3 excursions per week
4. Dedicated members of pastoral staff in each of our boarding houses
5. British students attending the programme to befriend and help our international students

We are now taking booking for 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6 week stays, please follow the link to our booking form to secure your place today! <https://www.felsted.org/summer-school/bookings-enquiries>

Happy reading!

Kirsty Fraser

Academic Manager

New Academies: Senior Campus

Dance: For students with a passion for dance and who want to learn a range of techniques and styles. We aim to take the international and diverse range of nationalities we have and enable students to explore dance within different cultures. This promises to be a challenging and creative academy and an exciting new element to our programme.

Fashion: A creative outlet for our students interested in designing their own garments and collections. Taking inspiration for their own culture and what they see and experience here at Felsted this academy will help students to develop their fashion flare.

Cambridge Exam Preparation: Taking exams is an essential part of young people's education, but can be a daunting experience. Our exam preparation academy aims to not only teach the content needed for the Key and Preliminary exams, but to teach students the techniques required to pass

New Academies: Junior Campus

Computing: Working with students this academy will teach them how to code, design games and build apps! From those new to these areas, to students with knowledge of how to do this already, we can cater to everyone in this new academy.

All academies operate for two weeks and students sign up to academies for this time.

Please ensure all students choose their preferred and second choice academy. Please consider their academy choice carefully as changes are difficult to make when the programme has begun.

If a student stays for more than two weeks, they will be given either their second choice, or allocated a different academy.

If you have any questions regarding academies, please email the Academic Manager, Kirsty Fraser on summeracademic@felsted.org

Daniel's Travels

Dear Partners,

As you will be aware, we pride ourselves on ensuring that we have a broad number of nationalities as part of our International Summer School. A huge part of my role is to ensure that I can visit you in your respective countries and allow plenty of time for meeting families, providing information to your teams, presenting to parents and taking part in education fairs. My schedule for the next few months is almost complete, but should there be an opportunity to meet you, please do get in touch. I also have a number of visits planned in the new year, and will be able to update you on this just before Christmas.

October: 4th - 7th, Lagos (Nigeria) / 11th - 13th, Cluj-Napoca (Romania) / 15th - 19th, Rostov, Moscow (Russia) / 19th - 22nd, Kiev (Ukraine) / 22nd - 25th, Moscow, Samara (Russia)

November: 1st - 3rd, Conference at Felsted / 5th - 16th, Argentina, Colombia, Chile (exact dates for each place tbc) / 27th - 28th, Wroclaw (Poland), 29th - 30th, Germany (exact dates for each city tbc)

December: 2nd - 5th, Hong Kong / 6th - 14th, China (exact dates for each city tbc)
